

TWELVE DEATHS FROM CHOLERA

Outbreak of Asiatic Scourge at Manila—Most of the Victims Filipinos.

Manila, Sept. 17.—Thirty-one cases of cholera have been reported in this city in all, and the death record up to the present time is twelve.

The health bureau was yesterday given a free hand in its campaign against the disease and today 100 additional inspectors were started out on a systematic investigation of the sanitary conditions of the city. The bureau is devoting every effort to the work of stamping out the plague before it gets a grip on the city. The churches and schools are co-operating in this work, a general movement to check the spread of the disease having been set afoot by the authorities, and the health officers declare that they are not alarmed, but are confident that the city will be thoroughly cleaned up and the plague situation under complete control within ten days, or a fortnight at most.

Another case of cholera has been reported on the transport Sheridan, which is under quarantine restrictions at the harbor quarantine station at Mariveles, and the case was detained an additional three days.

So far the cholera cases have been confined almost exclusively to Filipinos.

HOW TO AVOID APPENDICITIS.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orin Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orin Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutors."

CHANLER THE MAN WHO WILL BEAT HUGHES

Carren-Murphy conflict would not show in the convention proceedings, Senator McCarran having agreed, according to report, not to introduce a resolution, as he threatened yesterday, that he would vote the election of a new state committee. When the convention was called to order the credentials committee reported that there were no contests to be submitted to the convention. Cheers followed the announcement. Judge Alton B. Parker, permanent chairman, was presented to the convention amid applause and cheers.

Judge Parker's Address.

Not the least striking feature of Judge Parker's address was a declaration that James S. Sherman, the companion of Mr. Taft on the campaign ticket, invaded Wall street for political contributions in 1906, when Mr. Sherman was chairman of the congressional committee.

"Evidence is not wanted of the set purpose of the leaders of the Republican party," he said, "to continue their plan of securing funds from those who are interested either in legislation or in non-enforcement of law. Smuggling under the exposure of the insurance investigation of 1905, and subsequent disclosures not under oath, its congressional committee in 1906 called for dollar contributions from individuals to aid in the election of the Republican members of congress. The president himself subscribed a dollar, and a few others whose names were advertised, and then the publication of subscriptions ceased, and then the chairman of the congressional committee, now the Republican candidate for vice president, went down, and his predecessor of old, into Wall street to get the money with which to 'influence' the doubtful districts."

Republican Tariff Trades.

Judge Parker charged the Republicans with gross extravagance in the federal administration, and as well in those states under Republican control. "We need not be astonished," he said, "to find that the Republican party in order to obtain these vast sums of money necessary to meet the demands of its extravagance, has willfully through its promulgation and enforcement of excessive tariffs aided in and brought about the upbuilding of the majority of those giant fortunes which the president has denounced so vehemently."

"Judge Taft in his letter of acceptance admits that the great majority of the combinations in restraint of trade, the formation of which the high tariff especially invites, have arisen within the last ten years. During all that time the Republican party has controlled both the federal government and the government of substantially all those states which have created or tolerated them—for we have yet to hear of their creation or toleration in the southern states which are under Democratic control."

Campaign Chests Filled.

Judge Parker declared that the beneficiaries of the tariff had long been looked to fill the Republican campaign chest. He said the contributing corporations had grown in number, swelled in affluence and gained in influence until the point was reached of a practical working business alliance between the Republican party and the favor seeking corporations.

He continued: "It is not only the highest desire of all good citizens of all parties whatsoever that our political life should be clean, but it is essential to the liberties of the people. That result will not be accomplished until business and politics are divorced by statutes, the violation of which will result in imprisonment. We can never hope for that result while the Republican party is in power. It has created its Frankenstein. The creature must be fed. It has created a system of corruption which has no progress to the point of controlling the power which created it. The Republican party has reached a point where it dare not pause."

Roosevelt and Harriman.

It was at this point that Judge Parker made his attack on Mr. Sherman, and from that he turned to President Roosevelt and Mr. Harriman, saying: "Here we see a man of great ambition, and, as we are told, of lofty ideals, become so accustomed to this party custom that he does not hesitate to inject Mr. Harriman to Washington to secure his good offices for money-raising purposes, taking indeed the precaution absolutely to assure his coming by suggesting in a letter that after the election he desired to consult him about the railroad feature of his message. What may have occurred at that meeting we do not know, but that it was sufficiently agreeable to Mr. Harriman to lead to his contributing and raising immediately upon his return to New York the sum of $265,000, we do know, also that a quarter of a million of that money was scattered over this state of New York for 'practical' uses by 'practical' men."

Were His Eyes Opened?

"Are we to assume that the smiting of the stockholders of Mr. Harriman's and the Standard Oil magnates' corporation by the president was because his eyes at last were opened and he had attained an appreciation of the serious character of the offense which they had committed in helping to swell his campaign fund? It may be so, but it is equally true that Harriman's corporations were not the first victims of an aroused conscience, nor did Mr. Harriman attain to eminence on the list of undesirable citizens for some two years. When he was singled out from other great contributors for communication cannot be absolutely proved. But the letters which the president wrote to Mr. Sherman upon Mr. Harriman's refusal to help elect another Republican congress afford food for reflection.

"Assurances are said to have been quietly given that the Republican party will in the future continue to foster and protect, as it has in the past, the interests which in return for the benefits afforded, have supported it and continued it in power."

Bryan's Election Necessary.

Judge Parker, in closing, said the people must look to the Democratic party for relief.

"The election of Mr. Bryan and Mr. Kern through the assistance of the electoral vote of the state of New York," declared he, "will go very far to secure this underlying, earliest and most important of all the many needed reforms."

"It will do more. It will assure it; for once it becomes apparent that the people recognize the gravity of the evil and have determined to cut it out, root and branch, no party will dare to stand in the way."

Judge Parker was liberally applauded throughout his speech, at the conclusion of which the committee on resolutions reported. On national politics and candidates, the platform says:

The Platform.

"The Democracy of New York, in state convention assembled, reaffirms and renews its allegiance and devotion to the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and heartily endorses the platform adopted and the candidates named by the Democratic national convention at Denver, and we pledge our hearty, earnest and enthusiastic support."

"The Democratic party is the rational exponent of the hopes and wishes of the toiling masses in their lifelong struggles against class privilege and greed, and it reiterates its abiding faith in the principles of democracy as against plutocracy."

"We, as the embodiment from the best traditions of our party and as the ideal exemplars of Democratic doctrine the standard bearers chosen by the united Democracy of the country as its leaders in this campaign against the organized forces of special privilege and legalized spoliation."

"Mr. Bryan has been for years conspicuous in the public eye and against his character, motives or private life no suspicion of any kind has ever arisen. With no army of public officials ready at his beck and call to control party machine, with no government departments organized so as to coerce corporations and financial interests into contributing to his campaign fund, his nomination has come as the spontaneous response to the wish of the great mass of his party and represents the aspirations and hopes of the rank and file of the Democracy throughout the nation. Like Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson, the great leaders of the Democratic party in its early days, his policies and his political motives have been bitterly assailed by privileged interests whose supremacy is dangerous to the institutions of our country. Like Jefferson and Jackson, he has repelled all the attacks made upon him and he is stronger today than ever before in the affections and confidence of the people. Mr. Bryan does not stand for an attack upon honestly acquired wealth. His election will restore the administration of federal government to the ideas of the fathers and assure to the country a safe, stable, economical and constitutional construction of the law."

"No greater praise can be given to Mr. Kern and no less is his due than to say he is in every way worthy of Mr. Bryan's associate on the national ticket."

New York Republicans Accused.

The Republican state administrations since David B. Hill's term as governor are accused of gross wastefulness, and it is demanded that the public expenditures shall be safeguarded, that sinecures shall be abolished, that economy shall be practiced in every public department, and that the business of the people be transacted on the lines on which successful private enterprise are conducted.

"The promises of reform upon which the present governor was elected," the platform alleges, "have not been kept. We point as proof of this fact to the expenditures of 1907, which are larger than the extravagant sums expended under the predecessors of Governor Hughes. We charge him with the responsibility for this waste and with giving his time and attention to the pursuit of spectacular methods and selling advertising issues, rather than to the work of reform and retrenchment upon the promise of which he was elected governor two years ago. We insist that in this most important feature of the administration he has been derelict and remiss. Instead of cutting out the tax eaters from the list, he has caused new ones to be added to it, and in the two public commissions which have been brought into service at his suggestion and dictation he has created officeholders who have woefully failed to better the condition of affairs confided to their charge."

Policy of Centralization.

"We believe," the platform further says, "that government of the state by commissions has been another evidence of Republican policy of centralization, and is in direct opposition to the principle of government by the people. It is less noise, less legislation on new and untried lines, and of doubtful result. It is a policy of centralization and of less interference with personal and economic liberty."

"We are opposed to all summary legislation, and we believe that the people are the best governed who are least governed."

"We favor the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people."

"The dictation of the nomination of his successor and of the nominee for governor of the state by the present federal chief executive we resent as a dangerous precedent."

"The example of personal government at the federal capital has been closely followed at the state capital, and the real question is 'shall the people rule' and govern themselves?"

On the call of the roll for nominations for governor, the only name placed before the delegates was that of Lieutenant Governor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler of Dutchess county, and his nomination was made by acclamation.

John A. Dix of Washington county was nominated without opposition for lieutenant governor.

Secretary of State John S. Whalen, Comptroller Martin H. Glynn and State Treasurer Julius Hauser were renominated by acclamation. George Palmer of Schoharie county, for several years minority leader in the lower branch of the legislature, was nominated for attorney general by acclamation.

Albert Haight of Erie was nominated for associate justice of the court of appeals. Judge Haight is also the Republican nominee.

found that Loose would accept the chairmanship Christiansen withdrew.

Christiansen was made first vice chairman and E. W. Wade of Weber county was made second vice chairman. The selection of a secretary and executive committee was left in the hands of Colonel Loose. The committee discussed the general plans for the campaign and adjourned sine die. Colonel Loose did not take the trouble to come to Salt Lake to receive the chairmanship, but contented himself by sending word by one of his lieutenants that he was willing to be good and would accept the position.

The entire state committee was present at the meeting.

INSTRUCT FOR KNIGHT.

Silver City Democrats Enthusiastic for Provo Man.

(Special to The Herald.) "Silver City, Sept. 16.—The Democrats of Silver City assembled in convention this evening at the courthouse to elect delegates to the state convention. Great enthusiasm was manifested. No such manifestation has been shown since the campaign of 1896. After the meeting was called to order, Franklin Christiansen and C. Franklin Bown were chosen as delegates to the state convention, with George Paxman and Henry Zimmerman alternates. The mention of Jesse Knight's name caused a demonstration that lasted several minutes before the chairman could entertain a motion for the instruction of the delegates for Mr. Knight for governor first, last and all the time. James Davidson and C. McMurray were elected delegates to the county convention. J. M. Taylor and J. J. Gallagher were elected delegates to the judicial convention. Regardless of party lines, it was declared that Jesse Knight would receive no less than 95 per cent of the total vote of the third district. It was unanimously agreed to lay aside all party lines and to pull as a body for a member of the board of county commissioners for Silver City. The convention adjourned after the organization of a large Bryan club."

COUNTY CONVENTION CALL.

Republicans Decide on Sept. 29 as Date—Primaries Sept. 24.

The Republican county committee has called a call for the Republican county convention, which will be held in the Salt Lake theatre Sept. 24. The convention will name candidates for county treasurer.

Beauty and Bad Breath

Cannot Go Together, No Matter How a Woman May Try to Make Them.

It does not matter how beautiful a woman may be, if she is afflicted with bad breath she will be shunned and pitied by men, and even women will studiously avoid her.

If any woman doubts this statement let her make a point of asking a friend in whom she may confide a man friend or relative. If he be honest he will tell her that foul breath from the mouth of a woman will drive men from her more rapidly than any other personal affliction.

Foul breath arouses in man disgust and where this quality is brought into play comes to man when he is in company with such a woman.

What is true of bad breath in woman is not true in so great a degree in men. Women are looked upon as the incarnations of sweetness, breeding, virtue and refinement. Foul breath will sicken a man so that he cannot feel for such a woman a companionship necessary to make him desire to be in her company.

There is absolutely no occasion for bad breath in either men or women. Charcoal, the strongest absorbent known, when taken into the stomach, will prevent this repugnant tendency or affliction.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are sold in tremendous quantities all over America and Canada. They cure and have cured all forms of bad breath. A single box will convince you of this fact. One should eat some of these lozenges after each meal and upon retiring. You might eat fifty of them, but pure willow charcoal mixed with sweet honey to make them palatable and comfortable to use, will preserve their peculiar and lasting strength.

The next time you wish to go into company and don't want your foul breath to humiliate you, eat several of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges and your breath will be every drugist carries them, price 25 cents, or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 20 Stuart bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Kimball Pianos

Please Vocalists

A Letter From One Who Knows

Allow me to express to you the satisfaction and pleasure that I have experienced when accompanied at concerts, etc., on the "New Scale Kimball" piano. The evenness, richness and surpassing duration of tone, blending so effectively with, and supporting the human voice that all those qualities render in my opinion the Kimball piano a very desirable instrument for vocalists, and I honestly recommend it as a first-class piano.

Yours respectfully,

Mrs. Lizzie Thompson Edward.
